Radio Online has many uses, the main one for those of you who are from the mouth and headache to tune into commercial pauses on the radio. Tired of listening to the same songs again? Do you have the latest tech gadgets you run down? You don't have to be a music fanatic or a technology addict to enjoy online radio. Simply register to one of hundreds of radio stations with a simple satellite radio receiver / transmitter, and get your fix with the push of a button! Specially developed for the iPad. Online Radio Box - a simple free application to stream the radio online to your iPad. Streaming audio through the Airwaves is a great experience, but it doesn't give you or your listeners much choice as the stations have been preprogrammed to play the same songs at specific times.
